The Church of Christ at O'Fallon Celebrates 50 years on February 21
Please get the word out to all members, past and present:
 Joe Schwartz is putting together a photo power point of the past 50 years of the O'Fallon Church of Christ. If you have church photos that you would share, we'd appreciate having them, either email digital copies to Joe at mrjilly@charter.net or place your photos in a marked envelope and place in the Joe Schwartz Family Communication Folder. They will be scanned and returned to you. We also want to reach as many past ministers, elders, deacons, members as possible to invite them to this year's events. If you have contact information such as physical or email addresses, please get the information to Debbie as soon as possible.

CFS' 24th Annual Timothy Can Campaign

Goal of $27,500 for 2010, about $50 a can. Funds raised help cover the medical costs and other needs of children in their care. It is hopeful that a sizable portion of this year's need will be met by this campaign. Please be sure to pick up a can from the Lobby and fill it between now and June 20th.

(More cans are due to be delivered on Wednesday) Our small change can make a big difference for CFS and the children they serve.
